SECTION 12.

Said rules are further amended by revising Section 7-1.10 as follows:

~~"7-1.10 House Amendments to Senate Bills~~ Special Action Procedures

(a) The questions which arise before the Senate respecting ~~amendments~~ actions taken by the House ~~to a Senate bill or resolution~~ are, in order of precedence:

- 1st- A motion to agree to the House amendment as amended by the Senate. This motion shall be considered to be out of order if the bill or resolution has been engrossed by the Senate pursuant to 6-9.1.

2nd- A motion to agree to the House amendment.

3rd- A motion to disagree with the House amendment.

4th- A motion to recede from the Senate's ~~disagreement or amendment~~ or disagreement to the House amendment.

5th- A motion to insist on the Senate's ~~disagreement or amendment~~ or disagreement to the House amendment.

(b) Upon a motion by any Senator, a Special Order or a Special Order Resolution may be taken up by the Senate at any time following the conclusion of the current business before the Senate.

(c) When the Senate passes a bill or resolution and sends it to the House, parliamentary procedures that extend the amendment process possibilities include:

(1) The House amends the bill or resolution and returns it to the Senate (first degree amendment).

(2) The Senate then may offer an amendment (which itself is amendable one time and in this case Rule 7-1.5 shall not apply) to amend the amendment adopted by the House, unless the bill or resolution had been engrossed in the Senate, and return the bill or resolution to the House (second degree amendment).

~~(b)~~ (d) The President, upon point of order being made, shall state his or her opinion whether a House amendment to a Senate bill is germane. If in the opinion of the President the House amendment is not germane, it shall be ruled out of order. The effect of such ruling if not appealed from or if appealed from and the appeal not sustained, shall be the same as a vote of the Senate to disagree, and as such the Secretary shall so report it to the House. Such point of order shall take precedence over a motion to agree.

~~(c) When any bill or resolution which originated in the Senate has been amended in the House, and is before the Senate for action on the House amendment, one amendment may be offered in the Senate to the House amendment unless the bill or resolution has been engrossed by the Senate pursuant to Rule 6-9.1. A proposed Senate amendment to the House amendment may itself be subject to one amendment, and in this respect Rule 7-1.5 shall not apply.~~

~~(d)~~ (e) A House amendment to a Senate bill or resolution must be adopted by the vote required to pass the bill or resolution."

SECTION 13.

Said rules are further amended in Section 9-1.8 by revising subsection (c) as follows:
